

HOT TOPIC II – Power Supply and Power Management in Ubicom

This session views the challenges for power supply and power management with devices and system of ad hoc communication nature. The session highlights some of the design aspects relevant in ubicom and their impact to the whole system design and communication solutions.